NEBS Member Spotlight Of The Month

Ya Porkin' Me BBQ/ Patrick McKenna

This month, NEBS interviewed Patrick McKenna of Ya Porkin' Me BBQ to share some background on the team and learn more about why they compete.

1. Tell us a little about you and your team. How did you get started in competitions and why did you start?

The team consists of Patrick McKenna (chief cook), Dave Nickerson (my right hand man) and Jim McDonough (the rookie). We are out of Plymouth MA and 2019 will be our third year competing. Our focus is to make the best BBQ we possibly can and have fun while doing it.

2. What do most like about competitions?

Spending time with friends and family.

3. What are some of the challenges of competitions?

Our biggest challenge is the weather; we work mainly out of tents and this past season Mother Nature had it out for us.

4. Why do you love barbeque?

There's just something about fire, smoke and meat that I just can't get enough of!

5. If there is one piece of advice you can give to a team first starting out, what is it?

Have fun, use the best quality meat you can and practice a lot
